Job Description: Professor

Overview
Alaska Bible College seeks an experienced faculty member to teach in the fields of Bible, Theology, and Ministry. ABC is an accredited, biblical institution of higher education that operates as a faith-supported mission organization with a vision to develop disciples for indigenous leadership in the Alaskan church. All faculty members serve as missionaries and are required to raise support in order to fund their ministry at the school.

Job Summary
Faculty members provide instruction in assigned classes, both in-person and online, in accordance with applicable administrative policies and procedures, instructional models, and course syllabi as established by the school. In addition to teaching roles, faculty members at Alaska Bible College generally assume specific administrative duties in accordance with the personnel needs of the school. Each faculty member is directly accountable to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Qualifications
1. A Master's degree from an accredited seminary or graduate school in the area of expertise is the minimum academic standard.
2. Ministry experience appropriate to the teaching position. In keeping with the distinctives and emphases of the College, preference will be given to candidates with specific cross-cultural or rural Alaskan ministry experience.
3. Demonstrated ability to teach.
4. Commitment to the College Doctrinal Statement.
5. Ability to raise missionary support to fund this ministry position.

Responsibilities
1. Teach online and in-person classes as assigned.
2. Integrate a Biblical worldview into each course taught.
3. Maintain knowledge of contemporary developments in academic disciplines.
4. Stimulate students to lifelong learning.
5. Develop syllabi for all classes taught.
6. Improve teaching ability by effectively responding to student and Vice President for Academic Affairs evaluations.
7. Develop methodology to effectively teach to varied cultural backgrounds and learning styles, with particular focus to Alaska Natives.
9. Serve as mentor and academic advisor to assigned students.
10. Promote the College by speaking, teaching, and participating in various ministry functions throughout the state of Alaska.

11. Other duties as assigned. Due to the nature of ministry at Alaska Bible College, all faculty members are expected to assume additional administrative responsibilities that align with their experience, qualifications, interests, and skills.

Benefits

Annual vacation, holidays, and sick time; time (but not financial resources) provided for further studies and professional development through distance education; summers (June and July) generally available for maintenance of missionary salary (i.e., 'furlough' or 'partnership development'). Other benefits such as insurance, retirement savings, etc., are financed from missionary support at the discretion of the individual employee.

Contact Information

Interested applicants should contact:

John G. Ferch
VP of Academic Affairs & Distance Education
Alaska Bible College
248 East Elmwood Avenue
Palmer, AK 99645
907-745-3201
jferch@akbible.edu