

Library Handbook

Revised December 20, 2021

Mission Statement

The mission of the Alaska Bible College Library is to provide resources and services which meet the educational and research needs primarily of Alaska Bible College (ABC) students, faculty, and staff, as well as those in the surrounding Christian community, in order to assist them to become servant leaders with Christ-like character.

Library Objectives

Acquire material. Acquire materials in appropriate form, depth, and diversity to support the curriculum and mission of the college.

Provide service. Assist with the reference and resource needs of all library patrons. Assist patrons to access information networks outside the university.

Manage the Collection. Manage the currency, diversity, and form of the collection to support the educational objectives of the college.

Give instruction. Provide library orientation. Support research and information literacy in an environment of intellectual freedom, grounded in a Biblical worldview. Enable patrons with the tools to access information in an increasingly digital age.

Patrons

The library is open to all college students, faculty, and staff and to the community. Community patrons must provide their contact information (phone number, home address, and email address and a photocopy of a valid ID) in order to be given a library account; this information is used to contact patrons if items become overdue.

Library Hours

The library hours are posted at the entrance to the library and on the ABC website. At the discretion of the Library Director, the library may be closed for special occasions such as ABC school vacations, Winter Retreat, Christmas Banquet, Graduation Banquet, and Graduation Program. Occasional extended library hours may be requested for special projects, such as extra study time the weekend before final exam week or during final exam week. The Library is closed from 11-noon on Tuesdays and Thursdays for Chapel during the school year and is closed during the summer.

General Regulations

The atmosphere of the library depends upon the full cooperation of its users. Your help is appreciated.

- The library should be a quiet place for people to read and study. Avoid any conversation in the study carousels in the Main Stacks and Student Study Area. Quiet conversation is permitted in the Study Lounge, but please respect others who are around you.
- Return checked-out books to the bin in the Student Study area.
- Books used in the Main Stacks without being checked out need to be returned to the bin in the Reference Section. Put any journals or magazines in the return bin in the Student Study Area.
- Only people working in the library should re-shelve books, magazines, or newspapers so that the books are returned to their correct location—a book out of place might not be found by anyone for a long time.
- The borrower is required to make payment for lost, damaged, and overdue library materials.
- The library is not responsible for any patron's lost or stolen items.

In-house Library Resources

Alaska Section: This section is located in the southeast corner of the Main Stacks room. These all have yellow spines marked with "A."

Archives: Old books located on the east wall next to the Alaska section.

Audio-Visual Section and Physical Object Section: DVDs, CDs.

Counseling Reference Section: Located on the east wall of the Main Stacks Room. Labeled as "CRef" with a red label.

Elementary Education: Materials located on the Wooden bookshelf in the Reference area and on the rack in the corner of the Reference area. Includes physical objects like display of the temple or puppets (on request).

Periodicals:

- Hard copies: These are located in the Library Study Lounge as you enter the library.

- Online copies: The library subscribes to the Galaxie Theological Journal Database which has full-text copies of articles in a large number of journals including Bibliotheca Sacra, Westminster Theological Journal, Trinity Journal, The Master's Seminary Journal, and the Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society. Alaska Bible College students can access the Galaxie Theological Journal Database by clicking on "Library," then "Links," and then "Galaxie Theological Journal Database" within their Populi account.

Oversize: Books too large for usual shelving are located in the Oversize Section on the south wall of the Main Stacks Room. Spine denotes "Oversize."

Reference Section: This section is at the south end of the Main Stacks Room. These books must remain in the Library, and, therefore, cannot be checked out. Reference books are marked with an "R" above the Dewey Decimal Number on the book's spine label.

Reserve: Course textbooks put on Reserve are located in the Circulation Room.

Circulation

Books, media, and all other materials are checked out and returned at the Circulation Desk. Items may be renewed (if not requested by someone else) at the Circulation Desk or by emailing the librarian at library@akbible.edu. All materials are subject to recall at any time if an instructor requests them to be placed on Reserve for use in a course.

Checking out resources:

Take the resources you wish to check out to the Circulation Desk.

Books, Audio-Visual & Physical Objects: There is a three week limit for these books. At this time CRef books can be checked out as regular circulation books. Arrangements can be made with the Library Director to check-out flannelgraphs and puppets for longer periods of time if desired. A total of 15 resources can be checked out, not including the Reserve limit of 4 items.

Reference Books & Periodicals: These may not be checked out unless special arrangements are made with the Library Director.

Reserve Books: These books are kept by the Circulation Desk and can be checked out for two hours for use in the library. Also, Reserve books can be checked out from closing time at the end of the day until the next day the library opens. Be sure to return Reserve books on time so that others can use the books for their course work. There is a 50 cents per hour late fine for all Reserve materials that are not returned on time. Up to 4 Reserve items can be checked out at a time.

Overdue Fines: Normally the late fine for return of any item is 25 cents per day. One exception is that the fine for late Reserve books is 50 cents per hour.

Finding Resources in the Library

You can access library resources on our online database via the Alaska Bible College website www.akbible.edu. Click on the “Library” tab and then on “Online Catalog.” Or students can access the online catalog via the Library tab in their Populi account.

Locating a physical resource in the Library:

When you pull up a book entry on the online catalog, it will look something like this:

The Apostles' Creed : An introduction

Book • Walsh, Chad...[et.all...] Available at Main Library: Main Stacks• 238.11 W16a

You can click on the title link to see more information about the book or you can locate the book by first noting what section of the library it is located. In this example, it is in “Main Stacks.” Common sections include the following:

- A - Alaska
- Arch - Archive books
- CRef - Counseling Reference
- DVD/CD - Audio-visual section
- EE - Elementary Education
- Oversize - Books too large for normal shelving
- R - Reference
- Reserve
- SpecRef - Special Reference (see staff)

Then locate the book according to its call number, ie- 238.11 W16a. A posted sign at the end of each row of books tells what book (call) numbers are located on that row. Every book and most other resources in the library have a section and a call number.

ATLA eBook Lending Program

Alaska Bible College students can access electronic books by clicking on the “Links” tab under the Library section of their Populi account. Click on the Atla eBook Lending Program. It will open in a new page.

To check out a book, click the “My Account” button at the top right hand corner. Click on “Alaska Bible College” in the drop-down box. Search for a desired title and click the “Check-out”. To return just click the “Return Now” button in the main webpage or within your reader app. If you have any questions on how to access eBooks, please contact the library Director at library@akbible.edu.

Galaxie Theological Database

Patrons can only access this through their personal ABC account either through their own computers or on the computers in the Main stacks. From the Populi Library page, click the “Links” tab. Hit the link to Galaxie Theological Journal Database.

Click the “Search Journals” heading under the right-hand column titled “Journals Menu.” Type in your search words. You can print or save a PDF to your computer.

For Online or Distance Education Students

Students studying in ABC’s distance education programs including online and modular, enjoy full access privileges to ABC’s library resources. If you cannot visit the main campus in person, please follow the instructions below to request resources to be delivered to your location. Limits on loan times and limits on number items borrowed are the same as for on campus students.

Searching for Books

1. Visit the online library catalog.
2. Use the Search form to search for a particular title, author, or keyword.

Note: In addition to borrowing physical books, distance education students may also do research online using the online databases to which the library subscribes.

Borrowing Books

After you locate a book through the steps above, follow these procedures to borrow the book.

1. Email library@akbible.edu to request books to be sent to you. In your email, include the following information:

Your instructor’s name

Book title

Author

Barcode number

Call number

2. If you are a distance education student, the books will be mailed to you. Other students can make arrangements with library staff to obtain their materials.

Note: Reference books cannot be checked out without special approval from the Library Director. Reserve books may only be checked out in-person from the main library, unless special approval is given by the Library Director.

Returning Books

When finished with your books, return them to the main library through any of the following means:

- Return the books to the main library in person.
- Mail the books to the main library:
Alaska Bible College Library
248 E. Elmwood
Palmer, AK 99645

Note: Students are responsible for all library materials until they are returned. Any replacement charges for items that are not returned will be applied to the student's school bill.

Copier and Printers

Printer/copier is located in the Library Study Lounge.
